

In ONE WEEK parents will level up their relationship with their teen with just 5 minutes a day.

TEEN SPEAK

Micro-Learning

Are you hearing that parents...

-  Find it challenging to have meaningful conversations with their teen?
-  Find themselves and their teen often talk past each other?
-  Sometimes feel like they're speaking a different language?
-  Worry about their teen and want to establish a stronger connection?

This micro-lesson is designed to help parents understand the unique language and communication style of teens.

SCHEDULE A CALL TODAY

We'll provide parents with strategies to help them create a positive and supportive environment for their teen that has them coming back to their parents when they need to talk.

It is easy to follow and with 5 minutes a day can be completed in just one week, making it the perfect tool for busy parents trying to stay connected with their teens.

We have created this resource with you in mind, providing a technology-delivered approach to supporting parents in strengthening their relationships with their teens.

Our online micro learning, available through licensing, is a link that can be seamlessly distributed to your parents through email, text or by including it in your newsletters or other communication.

Schedule a call today to talk more about how licensing this micro-lesson can help empower your parents to start building strong, healthy relationships with their teens right away.

- ✓ Discover Their Parent Super Powers
- ✓ Secrets to Real Talks
- ✓ Create a Winning Team

“

“This changed my parenting approach, allowing me to learn another way to talk to my teen!”

I highly recommend this course if you are struggling with talking with your teenager or wondering what are those next steps to be able to engage with them more.”

-Sally P

